A FIELD FOR A MISSION.

Here is a field for the occupation of a warship, say, of Great Britain or the United States. There are innumerable islands in this ocean, which are never regularly visited by vessels of any nationality or description. It sometimes occurs that vessels unintentionally reach some of these islands, get stranded and become total wrecks. Those of the crew and passengers who are so fortunate as to get ashore, subsist in the best way they can contrive until some stray vessel comes along and picks them up, get away to some civilized place in an open boat, or meet death through starvation in their desolation. As instances within the knowledge of our readers may be mentioned the Dunnotar Castle, the General Seigel, and the Wandering Minstrel, survivors from each of which wrecks have ultimately reached Honolulu. Another vessel, the Phoebe Chapman, which has left Honolulu long enough without being heard of to lead to the belief that something has gone wrong with her, may have met the fate of one of the vessels before named. Then there may be many others, from other parts, similarly unfortunate. Who can tell how many shipwrecked people may be cast away on unfrequented islands in this ocean, waiting and hoping for some friendly ship to come along and rescue them. Here, we repeat, is a field for the useful occupation of some warship, to go on a searching expedition. A more benevolent mission could not be undertaken.

EASTER PRAISE SERVICE.

The Easter praise service at the Central Union Church, Sunday evening, was attended by a very large congregation. As may be expected the floral decorations on the pulpit platform and the choir desk were very beautiful. The choir under direction of Mr. Myron Jones rendered special music in a very fine manner. Mr. Jones accompanying on the organ with much skill. The pastor of the church gave an appropriate address from the words, "We know in whom we have believed."

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

Monday, 9 to 12.—The Inspector-General gave a very instructive lecture on Primary Work—Language, followed by Miss Zoe Atkinson on Writing, illustrated by complete system upon the board. Mr. Van Giesen, of Molokai, then explained the Tonic Sol Fa System of Music, and proved himself thoroughly conversant with the subject. Mr. Van Giesen possesses a very sweet and musical voice, which he has under admirable control. Mr. Edgar Zumwalt then took up the subject of Phonics, and with the assistance of Mr. Atkinson explained and illustrated the subject very thoroughly.

1 p. m. to 3.—Written examination and Spelling, Mental Arithmetic and Dictation for Primary Grade.

Tuesday.—Written examination in Arithmetic, occupied the teachers during the morning session.

From 12 to 3 p. m.—The lectures were a continuation of those given the previous day, with the addition of an illustration of the Kindergarten System of Physical Geography and Map Modeling, by Mr. Van Giesen.

Wednesday, morning session.—Examination in Grammar.

Afternoon session.—Mr. Atkinson spoke at length upon the proper method of teaching from the Primer, giving rules, etc., also upon first steps in Arithmetic, both very instructive and interesting. Then followed the lectures upon Tonic Sol Fa System of Music, Map Modeling and the Phonics.

The teachers who endeavored to pass the examination in the Grammar Grade gave up the contest and withdrew, it being a trifle beyond their ability. They were all natives.

Thursday, morning session.—Examination in Geography, Composition and Reading.

Afternoon session.—Sentences and working with a very well put lecture from Mr. Atkinson, assisted by Miss Zoe Atkinson, on Grube's Method of Arithmetic, with full illustration upon the board by Miss Zoe, followed by lectures upon voice culture—Phonics with a few remarks on percentage.

Friday, morning session.—Examination in Theory and Practice.

Afternoon Session.—Phonics concluded. There was a lecture on the course of study for Public English Schools of Hawaii as published by the Board of Education, 1888, by Mr. Atkinson, with a few remarks upon Arithmetic by the same gentleman, followed by some very witty remarks from Prof. H. R. Hitchcock on school discipline which were enjoyed. After which Mr. H. Z. Austin spoke upon the advantages of Teachers' Meetings, and succeeded in organizing such a meeting, to include all teachers in Makawao, Kahului, Wailuku, Waikapu and Waialeale, to be held at Wailuku School House, monthly.

A vote of thanks was then extended to Mr. Atkinson for his continued kindness and unvarying patience, by the teachers assembled, which was very gracefully acknowledged by that gentleman, who gave as his final Address; and the Wailuku Teachers' Convention for 1889, was dismissed. All present then assembled in a group upon the front piazza of the school house, to be photographed by Mr. Gonssalves.

We were very agreeably surprised by the enthusiasm and undivided interest manifested by the teachers; the attendance was perfect, every teacher answering promptly to his, or her name, at roll call, each session; and in view of the fact, that for three days, we have had the heaviest, and in fact, only, rain of the season, we think the teachers deserve great credit.

The genial Inspector-General, Mr. Atkinson, has won for himself many friends, who will long remember him with kindly thoughts and sincerely trust he will continue as their leader. In conclusion, I am pleased to say this convention has been a most unqualified success.

On Saturday afternoon, at half-past three o'clock, the funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Dominis took place from the family residence, Washington Place, Beretania street, and was largely attended. WHY HE DID NOT GO TO THE HOSPITAL.

HE COULD LEAP THROUGH THE AIR.

My object in writing is two-fold: to express my gratitude for a great benefit, and to tell a short story which cannot fail to interest the feelings of many others. It is all about myself, but I have remarked that when a man tells the honest truth about himself he is all the more likely to be of use to his fellow-creatures. To begin, then, you must know I had long been more or less subject to attacks of bronchitis, a complaint that you are aware is very common and troublesome in Great Britain in certain seasons of the year. Some months ago I had a very severe turn of it, worse, I think, than I ever had before. It was probably brought on by my catching cold, as we are all apt to do when we least expect it. Weeks passed by, and my trouble proved to be very obstinate. It would not yield to medicine, and as I also began to have violent racking pains in my limbs and back, I became greatly alarmed. I could neither eat nor sleep. If I had been a feeble, sickly man, I should have thought less strangely of it; but as, on the contrary, I was hearty and robust, I feared some new and terrible thing had got hold of me, which might make my strength of no avail against it. I say, that was the way I thought.

Presently I could not even lie down for the pain all over my body. I asked my doctor what he thought of my condition, and he frankly, "I am sorry to have to tell you that you are getting worse!" This so frightened my friends, as well as myself, that they said "Thomas, you must go to the Hospital; it may be your only chance for life!"

But I didn't want to go to the hospital. Who does, when he thinks he can possibly get along without doing so? I am a labouring man, with a large family depending on me for support, and I might almost as well be in my grave as to be laid on my back in a hospital unable to lift a hand for months, or God only knows how long. Right at this point I had a thought flash across my mind like a streak of sunshine in a cloudy day. I had heard and read a good deal about Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and I resolved, before consenting to be taken to the hospital, I would try that well-known remedy. On this I gave up the doctor's medicine and began taking the Syrup. Mark the wonderful result! I had taken but three doses within twenty-four hours when I was seized with a fit of coughing, and threw up the phlegm and mucus off my chest by the mouthful. The Syrup has loosened and broken it up. Continuing with the Syrup, the racking pain, which I believe came from the bitter and poison humors in my blood and joints, soon left me entirely, and I felt like going to sleep, and I did sleep sound and quiet. Then I felt hungry, with a natural appetite, and as I ate I soon got strong and well. I felt I could leap through the air with delight!

In a week I was able to go to my work again. It doesn't seem possible, yet it is true, and the neighbors know it. There are plenty of witnesses to prove it. And, therefore, when I say I preach the good news of the great power of Seigel's Syrup to cure pain and disease far and wide, nobody will wonder at me.
